

Whereas, the Adair County R-II School District is losing a valuable member of its administration on June 30, 2008, with the retirement of Superintendent of Schools Diane Bradley who has devoted several years of her life to the education of this state's young citizens through tireless endeavors as an educator; and

Whereas, Diane Bradley has worked for twenty-seven years at Adair County R-II, where she is held in high esteem as an educator who demonstrates considerable competence and remarkable degrees of compassion and understanding; and

Whereas, deeply committed to the great cause of learning, Diane Bradley served as a math teacher and coach in the Schuyler County R-I School District and the Tipton R-VI School District for three years prior to assuming her responsibilities at Adair County R-II, where she has also taught seventh and ninth grade math, English, health, psychology, the gifted, and pre-algebra, and has served as the psychological examiner and director of special education; and

Whereas, Diane Bradley further distinguished herself by implementing the Comprehensive Model Guidance program; serving as a National Honor Society sponsor; chairing the Comprehensive School Improvement Plan Committee; providing before and after school tutoring; holding the office of secretary, treasurer, and president for the Brashear Community Teachers Association; and witnessing the District earn three Distinction in Performance awards and the passage of a bond issue with eight percent approval to build a new elementary school; and

Whereas, Diane Bradley has supported her profession as a member of the American Association of School Administrators and the Missouri Association of School Administrators; and

Whereas, a member of Locust Hill Community Church, Diane Bradley has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include her husband, Dennis Bradley; one daughter and son-in-law, Bobbi and Matt Clark; one son, Ben Bradley; one grandson, John Clark; and her parents, Helen Pulse and the late James Pulse:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join the Adair County R-II School District in expressing appreciation for the unparalleled service that Diane Bradley has rendered to Missouri's children and in wishing her the long, fruitful, and enjoyable retirement that she so justly deserves; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Diane Bradley, as a measure of our esteem for her.

Offered by _____
Representative Rebecca Payne McClanahan
District No. 2

I, Rod Jetton, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House
Resolution No. 2362, adopted April 29, 2008.

_____
Rod Jetton, Speaker